WHAT IS HEADACHE?

NOT SO TRIVIAL AS IT IS GENERALLY THOUGHT TO BE.

HEADACHE IS A SYMPTOM.

Some Diseases That Go With It, and Their Relation to Each Other.

Headache means more than it says. It is a warning of coming trouble.

Folk who have headache should try to cure the origin of it. There are many varieties of headache. They may be symptoms of different diseases. But the beginning of them all is poison in the blood.

Generally, the poison can be filtered out by the kidneys.

A headache may be simply an unimportant pain, or the agency may be so exasperating as almost to drive one frantic.

Rheumatic folk have headache, hard workers have headache, people who drink too much tea and coffee, or use too much tobacco have headache, folks who worry or get too excited have headache.

Headache is relieved by nerves, sedatives and other drugs.

But not cured.

A cure requires the poison to be filtered out of the blood. The cause must be taken away. The kidneys have to do their duty.

The only medicine that will do this is Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills.

The reason is that they are made principally from the root of the asparagus, one of the most wonderful kidney tonics and cures known, and prepared in a certain way which uses all the curative principle of the plant.

Headache is irritation of the nerves by a poison. Curing it is taking away the poison.

Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills are not what is called "headache cure," but they cure the kidneys and make them filter the blood.

They take away the poison. They make headache impossible.

After the pain is gone prevent it from coming back. This is the mission of Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills.

If you have a headache make up your mind that something is wrong.

You may be rheumatic or have anemia, gout, kidney disease or other disorders of impure blood.

Headache is often a first symptom. Relying it doesn't prevent the disease from progressing.

Curing it does.

Poor, thin, unfiltered, poisonous blood causes headaches, neuritis and other nerve diseases by depriving the nerves of food.

Good, rich, pure, filtered blood makes strong, healthy, vigorous nerves, body and constitution.

On the kidneys depend the purity of your blood.

On Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills may depend the health of your kidneys.

There is no other medicine in the world that is just like Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills.

They act so quickly and certainly on the seat of the trouble. They are so absolutely harmless and gentle in action. They cure in so many cases where all other medicines have failed.

They are a wonderful medicine.

No one has been able to explain just what there is about spargus that has such a good effect on the kidneys.

GOV. BROWN

Grants Ten More Pardons. Same Clay Being One of the Lucky Ones.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—Gov. Brown Monday night put his signature to the pardon of Hume Clay, and the celebrated Bourbon county forger spent his last night in prison. Hume Clay will return to his old home, near where his divorced wife, who deserted him in his disgrace, still lives. The public generally think that his pardon was obtained mainly through the influence of his cousin, Hon. C. M. Clay, Jr., but there is also a story that the governor promised his son, the late Arch Brown, before the latter's death, to exercise clemency in Clay's case before his term of office expired.

Gov. Brown also attached his signature to a number of other pardons before leaving his office at midnight. The others set free are Jim Trimble, of Fayette county; [sic] Edelen and George Linton, of Nelson county; and John Kerblott, of Louisville. He also granted conditional pardons to five trustees who have been working about the State House square. They are Milton Wideson, Wm. Dickerson, Jim Stafford, John Sims and Bob Hopkins.

GOV. BRADLEY

Arrives at Frankfort and Rescues an Over-taken.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—Gov. Bradley and party arrived here in their special coach at 9:50 o'clock Monday and were met at the train by a detachment of the committee on entertainment. A surging mass of people of all classes had already gathered at the station to welcome the coming chief executive to the scene of his future labors. In the gubernatorial party were Gov.-elect Bradley, wife and daughter; Auditor-elect Stone and wife; Maj. and Mrs. C. C. McChesney, and J. B. Livingston of Lexington.

Gov. Bradley was taken into the carriage of Col. Tarrion, and was driven at once to the latter's elegant home, where he will spend the day and night. He appeared to be in the best of health and gave a cordial greeting to all those who were fortunate enough to get a word with him.

Jailer Dale gave Goose $50 and the county an equal amount for his fearless work.

SWANSON'S SHORTAGE MADE GOOD.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—Deputy Register Grant has a check for the amount of Swanon's shortage, which he says will be paid into the treasury on Swanon's arrival here. Charles Swanon, a son of the register and a clerk in his office, arrived here from Mt. Sterling Monday morning and both he and the other deputies in the department are indignant over the charges made against Mr. Swanon. They claim that the shortage was not a defalcation, as alleged in the report of the inspector, and they look upon the proceedings as hasty and ill-advised.

TAKEN TO TASK.

Chairman Morgan, of the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Particularly Severe on Sir Julian Pauncefote, British Ambassador.

In His Address to the Senate on the Behring Sea Question—The Ambassador's Criticism of the Congress Characterized as "Offensive."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The senate was addressed Monday by Mr. Morgan (dem. Ala.), chairman of the committee on foreign relations and formerly a member of the Behring sea Paris arbitration, in support of his resolution, offered on the third of December, referring to the committee on foreign relations, the president's special message of February 12, 1900, and his recent annual message relating to the payment by the United States of the claims of Great Britain arising out of the Behring sea controversy, with instructions to examine into the question of liability on the part of the United States, and of liability on the part of Great Britain or Canada. Mr. Morgan, who read his speech from printed slips, was very severe upon the British ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote, characterizing as "offensive" the ambassador's comments upon the action of congress in refusing an appropriation to pay the indemnity for losses of British subjects owing to the seizure of "sealers," and asserting that, as to many of those "sealers," they were the actual property, in whole or in part, of American citizens who had no such claim upon their own government. The ambassador, Mr. Morgan stated with emphasis, had no right to question members of congress for words spoken in debate; and his doing so in diplomatic papers which he had handed over to the senate press for publication, was an act of "intrusive arrogance." At one point of the speech he indulged in a touch of sarcasm in the expression of Sir Julian Pauncefote who had, he said, "buried him under his ponderous logic," and of the Earl of Salisbury, who had "extorted him for no better reason than he might be found most convenient." Mr. Morgan occupied two hours in the delivery of his speech; and then the resolution was agreed to.

FILLING VACANCIES.

Both the Republican and Democratic Committees Will Meet From Day to Day Until Their Task is Completed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Both the republican and democratic committees appointed for the purpose of filling the vacancies in the senate committees met Monday afternoon at the capitol. The republican committee met in conference with the utmost secrecy. No conclusion of any kind was reached, and meetings will be held from day to day until committees are ready to be submitted to the caucus. The large addition to the republican memberships of the senate makes the task of suitably and satisfactorily adjusting the assignments a task not easily performed. Those senators like Sherman, Morrill, Allison, Mitchell and Aldrich, who have been chairmen of particular committees for years will retain their places and where a senator is the ranking member of two or more committees he will be permitted, in accordance with the usage of the senate to select that chairmanship from his list that he prefers. The difficulty comes in locating the new men and re-arranging these committees, the membership of which have been almost entirely obliterated.

Every republican senator will receive a chairmanship. There are sixty handouts, and the committee of these fifteen are given to the minority, leaving forty-five for the republicans.

To congratulate Gov. Bradley.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—At the session of the Republican National committee Monday on motion of Mr. Fish, of Ohio, a committee of five was appointed, consisting of himself as chairman, Messrs. DeYoung, of California; Clarkson, of Iowa; Manley, of Maine, and Campbell, of Illinois to draft a telegram to Gov. Bradley, of Kentucky, or to the members of the executive committee, congratulating him upon his election as governor of that state, and extending the hope that his administration would be marked by all the favoring conditions which his personal and political worth demanded.

Want the Wool Trade Restored.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 10.—A meeting of wool merchants was held at the Manufacturers' club Monday and the following resolution adopted:

"Whereas, we have been reduced by the wool merchants that the Fifty-third congress be requested to immediately enact, without the condition, a law for the lifting of an 'anti-shedding' law of 1890, by joint resolution, to go into effect immediately after its passage."

Major Rogers' Wife in a Jump.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 10.—The police Monday caught the junk shop of R. Rosenberg, 221 and 223 West Thirtieth street, in this city, and found what they believe to be $15,000 worth of stolen property. The property found consisted of thousands of pounds of stolen goods, and many miscellaneous articles. The goods came from nearly every railroad running into Cincinnati.
